Blue Devils Play Chohee Tonight

The Pahokee Blue Devils will be playing outside the Suncoast Conference this Friday night when they travel to the north end of the Big Lake for a game with the Okeechobee Brahmins. Local football fans can count on this being a hard fought contest with the game, probably going to the team which gets the most breaks.

Coach Web Pell's Blue Devils made a good showing against the Lake Worth Trojans last Friday night even to the point of outplaying the Trojans during the last half, but they were slow getting started and allowed the Lake Worth eleven to run up a 21-0 lead at the halftime when they were never able to overcome the final score being 28-12 in favor of the Trojans.

At Lake Worth the Blue Devils scored in the third quarter after driving 61 yards in 13 plays to the Lake Worth two where Doug Blanton plunged through the line for the TD. In the fourth quarter Coach Pell's men pushed through another long drive from their own 16 to the Trojan one where they lost the ball on the fumble. After reaching their own eight the Trojans in turn fumbled the ball to the Blue Devils and on the next play Joe Alderman raced around left end for the TD. Johnny Smith's running helped a lot in the third period Devil touchdown, while the pass receiving and running of Denny Padgett accounted for considerable yardage in Pahokee's big drive in the last quarter.

Heater Fires Will Come; Be Careful

JACKSONVILLE — The fall heating season has arrived, and with it will come the annual crop of heater fires, caused by improperly operated heaters, officials of the State Board of Health reminded today.

Noting that accidents, even excluding traffic mishaps, are the third leading cause of death in the state, and that fires and explosions caused 222, or one-eighth of the total deaths, the state's public health leaders called for common sense and intelligence in getting ready for the heating season.

Heaters burning fuel, particularly kerosene, cause by far the largest number of heater fires, they said. It is safe to say that all such fires are caused by improper operation of the appliance. Accumulation of dirt and carbon in the fire box and flooding are the main causes of such trouble.

The public health officials say heater manufacturers and fire safety experts agree that the following set of rules is the minimum and must be followed to avoid an eventual oil heater fire.

1. The heater must be cleaned out before the season begins and the flow regulating mechanism tested to make sure it is functioning properly. This cleanliness and freedom from clogging must be maintained.

2. A lighter rod is best. However, if the oil is lighted by tossing in a burning match or scrap of paper, Make Sure too much oil is not in the fire pot. Use a flash light if necessary.

3. Never fill a portable heater while it is burning.

4. Never move a portable heater while it is burning.

5. Place the heater where it cannot be tipped over and away from curtains and furniture.

The experts also reminded that an unvented heater burns the oxygen in the room and must have a fresh supply. A window or door should always be slightly open. The officials emphasized again that common sense and a little care could prevent practically all of the oil heater fire that break out in the state each year as the fall heating season begins.

Baptists Adopt $37,104.00 Budget

The Pahokee First Baptist Church has adopted a budget of $37,104.00 for the new church year. The new budget was presented by C. E. (Bill) Williams, chairman of the finance committee, at a meeting of the Board of Deacons. In it $4,700 was earmarked for world missions.

CLASSIFIED ADS P. 4

Flood Control Will Need Great Sum In Future

Congress will be asked to appropriate more than $22 million next year to the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Projects, Brian McCarty, chairman of the District Governing Board, told the Bureau of the Budget in Washington, D. C. today that these funds are needed to complete items now under construction and to initiate new works.

McCarty and his fellow Board members were accompanied by FCD Executive Director, G. E. Dail, Jr., and Herbert C. Gee, Engineering Consultant to the Board.

According to Board Member David Click, Cleiston, the annual report to the Budget Bureau includes a request for more than $6 million to complete work now under construction. He said that the remainder will initiate works to complete the conservation areas. Also plans for Fiscal Year 1961 call for work in the Kissimmee River Basin and Lake Okeechobee and outlets. Included is work on the North West shore of the Lake to increase its safe conservation and flood storage capacity.

Girls Town Site Proposed In Citrus

INVERNESS—Mrs. Horace E. Dodge II and her attorneys have been inspecting a site near here for her proposed "Girls' Town". A tract of approximately 2,000 acres located on the Withlacoochee River, which has been offered as a gift by J. Roy Dee, formerly of St. Petersburg and a Mt. Carmel Illinois oil man, is under consideration.

The land offered as a gift is part of a 7,500 acre tract and Mrs. Dodge's engineers are inspecting the property to determine whether or not it will prove suitable.

Mrs. Dodge explained that the Girls' Town project she proposes is to be for girls between the ages of 10 and 17 who are orphans or underprivileged children and is in no sense a home for delinquent girls. She estimated that when completed the project will cost in the neighborhood of two and one half million dollars. Value of the site offered in Citrus County is estimated at $100,000.

Mack Barfield was able to return to his home in Canal Point Sunday from the Everglades Memorial Hospital where he was a patient for several days.

Alvin Armstrong of Hialeah and Jim Bowles of Miami were guests of Mr. Armstrong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, in Pahokee the past week.

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home . . . financial security . . . a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4423.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

National Flower Week Is Oct. 25-31.

Unlike some other states, Florida has a number of special reasons for observing "National Flower Week," Oct. 25-31, as proclaimed by Governor LeRoy Collins.

For one thing, Florida is a leading flower state; a leader commercially in the cut flower industry and a leader for the beauty and variety of individual flower types which thrive from the Perdido River to Key West.

Then, too, Florida's name itself suggests a "place where flowers grow."

The 14th annual observance of National Flower Week, held in cooperation with the Society of American Florists, is designed generally to promote appreciation for flowers.

The Florida Flower Association stresses also the importance of an expanding Florida flower industry, according to John W. Early, state association manager.

Florida leads all states in "glad" production. Last year some 8,000 acres of gladioli—worth $9,000,000—were planted; and this year it is anticipated that 16.4 million dozen gladioli will be marketed.

More than 300 acres are given to pompons; value of the Florida wholesale chrysanthemum crop for 1959 will reach $5.5 million, association officers predict.

Commercial plantings of lilies, statice, and iris are also important. Shipments nationwide from Florida increase during the fall and winter months, with heaviest volume attained just before the Easter season.

This year a wider variety of flowers grown in Florida will reach northern markets.

An estimated 65 per cent of Florida-produced flowers are shipped via air, truck, and rail to wholesale markets which sell to retail stores.

The principal movement of Florida-grown flower crops is to markets outside the state, though a sizeable portion of the state's production "cast their fragrance" within the Sunshine State.

The flower industry is expanding constantly in Florida, from point of dollar investment by growers, and in volume of shipments, as well as in wholesale and retail market values.

Research has given the answer to many problems of growing flowers commercially in Florida. Market development programs have been instigated to increase the competitive advantage of growing outdoor commercial cut flowers in Florida.

Dealers in insecticides, fertilizers, and equipment continue to cooperate in promoting the once-fledgling now substantial, flower industry.

It's no wonder that Florida's commercial flower producers refer to their "growing industry" as "big blooming business," describing their nationally recognized product as "the best under the sun."

Retailers Meeting Held In Tampa

A panel of state legislators headed by Senator Sam Gibbons of Tampa discussed legislative problems and indicated how retailers could help them fashion better laws. ## Race Track Money Due In November

The first distribution of racing taxes collected by the State will be made to the counties on November 3, 1959. These funds are being distributed two months earlier than in the past because of financial difficulties now being experienced by some of the smaller counties.

This is revenue which has been received from various dog tracks operating during the summer months and which cannot be distributed until the State Racing Commission, in accordance with law, indicates that the new racing season has begun. October 30 will mark the opening of the current 1959-1960 racing year.

It has come to my attention that one county, in particular, is having to delay payment of employee salaries until receipt of these racing monies, or until other revenue begins to accrue. As a former county official, I can well understand the problems facing these officers, and especially those of the smaller counties during certain periods of the low tax-collection months. I am also fully aware of the fact that quite a few of our counties are very dependent on this racing revenue, for both general and other operations.

The various county school boards also look forward to receipt of funds from this source which are utilized in accordance with the general law or special acts providing allocations for specific purposes.

We all know the State of Florida during the summer months finds it necessary to borrow from its Trust funds in order to keep the State's finances on a firm footing. However, some of the counties are not in the fortunate position of having sources from which loans may be made and it appears to me that this early distribution may be helpful at this time. Accordingly, my staff has been instructed to make this racing distribution at the earliest date which would not conflict with the statutes.

The November distribution of racing taxes will total $870,000.00, or $10,000.00 to each county. Last year, the first distribution of racing taxes was made on January 1, 1959, and totaled $1,340,000.00.

During 1958-1959, a total of $178,300.00 in racing funds was distributed to each county, or $11,946,100.00 for the season.

Mrs. Lucille Johnson had as guests over the weekend her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Karns, of Sanford. While they were here Mrs. Johnson and her guests, accompanied by Mrs. Blake Dunson, visited in Miami.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman—even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, who directs the mission program of more than nine million Southern Baptists, heads the list of out-of-state speakers for the Florida Baptist Convention which meets in Tallahassee, November 10-12, according to Tom M. Collins, program chairman.

Cauthen supervises the work of 1328 American-born foreign missionaries. The total program includes 3,229 churches, 887 schools and colleges with 129,800 enrolled, 17 hospitals and 58 clinics and dispensaries and 14 orphanages, according to the last annual report to the convention.

Other out-of-state speakers include Dr. Robert G. Lee, pastor, Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis, Dr. Robert Hastings, Executive Committee, Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, and Joseph R. Coleman, a layman from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Reports will be made by the various departments and agencies of the convention, and a mission budget of $2,200,000, will be presented for adoption. Preliminary surveys show gains in all phases of Baptist work in Florida. Reports from last year show that 1,180 churches with 429,871 members received $22,716,150 for all causes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. (Speedy) Gay, former Pahokee residents now living in Orlando, visited friends here Sunday and were accompanied home by their daughter, Barbara, who was the weekend guest of Miss Martha Sellers.

Roberts Predicts Agriculture Plan Of Promotion Good

TALLAHASSEE — State Rep. Emmott Roberts of Belle Glade is convinced that a state agricultural promotion program just getting underway will produce the double benefit of building better acceptance of Florida farm products and encouraging various segments of the industry to launch their own sales campaign.

Here for a meeting of a Legislative interim committee, Roberts reiterated comments he made recently in Miami Beach before representatives of all aspects of Florida agriculture. At that time, the group endorsed the program unanimously after it had been described by spokesmen for the Florida Development Commission and the Commission's advertising agency.

Agricultural organizations represented at the Miami Beach meeting included the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, the Florida Agricultural Council, the Florida Farm Bureau Federation, the Florida Beef Council, the Northeast Florida Milk Producers Association, the Florida Flower Association, the State Department of Agriculture, the Florida Lychee Growers' Association and the American Tung Oil Association.

"I think this umbrella type of approach is the proper one," Roberts explained. "However, the state can't do the whole job alone. This help coming from the state can be fruitful in helping point out that agriculture is a major economic factor in Florida and perhaps the most stable."

Roberts was a principal Legislative sponsor of the agricultural promotion plan under which the Development Commission was instructed to spend $200,000 a year for this purpose.

He noted that since some Florida farm products are in deficit production, these would not be included in the national advertising program. Instead, publicity within Florida will be extensively used to encourage housewives to buy products produced in the state.

The display advertising campaign, set for two national magazines which are sold in supermarkets throughout Florida and the remainder of the country, has been timed carefully so that maximum impact will coincide with the availability of particular products. For instance, a January ad in Family Circle and Woman's Day will carry a salad-bowl theme and will praise the virtues of such Florida vegetables as escarole, tomatoes, celery endive and peppers.

Other advertisements are scheduled in one or both magazines for February, March, April, and May.

3rd 4-H Club Camp Given Ford Tractor

GAINESVILLE — The state-wide 4-H tractor program featuring safety, care and maintenance will get in high gear following the donation of a vehicle by Ford tractor dealers of Florida, according to W. W. Brown, boys' 4-H agent with the State Agricultural Extension Service.

Wilton C. Ireland, local dealer representing the state distributors, presented a tractor to Brown for use at 4-H Camp Cloverleaf near Lake Placid. The vehicle will bolster the education facilities at the camp, Brown said.

Under the direction of county agents and other Florida Agricultural Extension Service workers, the 4-H youths will get first-hand experience in all phases of tractor care and repair. In addition, the machine will be used to cultivate the state 4-H citrus grove and for use in camp improvement work.

This is the third tractor made available by the Ford dealers. The other units are now in use at state 4-H camps McQuarrie in the Ocala National Forest and at Cherry Lake near Madison.

Junior Queen For Orange Bowl

CORAL GABLES — Junior misses throughout Florida are preparing to compete for the reign of the country's biggest youth celebration, the Junior Orange Bowl Festival.

First wearer of the Junior Orange Bowl Queen crown was Sandy Wirth, 1959 winner, who later was chosen Miss Florida and became a finalist in the Miss America contest. She is now an NBC television star.

Last year's queen, 13-year old Hillary Willis, presided over the festival ball and Junior Orange Bowl Parade, which featured 22 units including 18 bands and attracted more than 100,000 spectators.

General rules for the queen contest specify that contestants must be 12 but not more than 14 on Dec. 1, chosen in municipal recreation department preliminaries, and officially elected by the departments prior to Dec. 15. Final judging will be in Coral Gables on Dec. 19.

Full information and entry blanks may be obtained by writing the Chamber of Commerce, Coral Gables.

Proclamation

TALLAHASSEE — Governor LeRoy Collins, himself a one-time State Chairman for the March of Dimes, has proclaimed January "New March of Dimes" in Florida.

The Governor in a Proclamation issued this week, said the expanded program of the National Foundation (formerly The National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis) "has opened a new offensive against the nation's major crippling diseases of birth defects, arthritis and polio."

Collins declared the expanded program, "developed through years of experience as a national voluntary health organization, provides a real hope for a solution to the causes of the three disease areas."

Little Ben Mills, Jr., a 21-month-old Tallahassee boy who was stricken with paralytic polio at eight months, received the Proclamation from Governor Collins.

The Chief Executive has continued his close personal interest in the fight against crippling since he served as State Chairman while a Florida Senator several years ago.

His Proclamation reads as follows:

WHEREAS, the National Foundation has opened a new offensive against the nation's major crippling disease of birth defects, arthritis and polio, and

WHEREAS, more than a quarter of a million infants are born each year with serious birth defects, and

WHEREAS arthritis cripples more persons than any other disease, and

WHEREAS, polio in 1959 continued to be a major health problem in the United States with twice as many paralytic cases during the year as in 1958, and

WHEREAS, millions of Americans are still unprotected by Salk Vaccine against this virulentcrippler, and

WHEREAS, thousands of children are especially the defenseless victims of these viciouscripplers, and

WHEREAS, the National Foundation's expanded program, developed through years of experience as a voluntary health organization, provides a real hope for a solution to the causes of the three disease areas;

NOW, THEREFORE, I LeRoy Collins, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim January, 1960, as in Florida, and urge all citizens to give their services and support to this urgent need to prevent crippling diseases.

Connie Mack, Jr., Is In Real Estate

CAPE CORAL — The man stands tall like his dad, and like Cornelius McGillicuddy, Sr. the piercing eyes get the message to you Quickly.

The resemblance is justified, for the man is Connie Mack, Jr., now executive director of Florida's newest community, Cape Coral.

Out of baseball since 1951 when he sold his interest in the Philadelphia Athletics, Mack, Jr. has long since become one of the leading citizens of Florida's west coast.

Today he is a highly-ranked executive of the Gulf Guaranty Land and Title Company, a Miami firm headed by youthful Leonard Rosen. In his present capacity Mack handles a variety of details attendant to the development of this city, nestled along the Caloosahatchee River 14 miles south of Ft. Myers.

"I love the game," Mack said, "but I've never been happier than I am right now. Here you can work, play a round of golf, work some more and get in a couple of hours fishing all in the same day. It's sort of the lazy man's way to do an honest day's work."

"I started coming South with the ball club back in 1935 and settled permanently in Florida in 1951. Dad loved Florida, too. . . always said it made him feel 15 years younger the minute he stepped off the train."

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sasser and son attended the meeting of the Florida Petroleum Marketers Association at Miami Beach last week, Wednesday through Friday. Mr. Sasser is a member of the FPMA Board of Directors. The Sassers had as guests Tuesday W. L. Ball, district manager of the Shell Oil Company and Mrs. Ball, of Tampa.

Wendell Harris has returned from Lady Lake where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Strickland.

Soil And Crop Group Slates November 30 Meet In Gainesville

GAINESVILLE — Twenty years of progress in research, teaching and extension in soils and field crops will be the theme of the 19th Annual meeting of the Soil and Crop Science Society of Florida at the University of Florida November 30-December 2.

J. R. Henderson, Agronomist with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service and program chairman for the meeting, says registration is scheduled for 10 A. M. to 1:30 P. M., Monday, November 30, in Dan McCarty Auditorium.

General topics for the three-day meeting include basic soils; crop breeding and variety testing; soil and crop relationship; weeds, insect and disease control; and a session set aside for contributed papers.

There will be a special symposium on nematology during the final morning session. Present status of teaching and extension programs in soils and field crops also will be discussed.

Steel Is Needed For 1960 Licenses

TALLAHASSEE — The State of Florida is scrambling for more steel to make its 1960 automobile license tags.

The pinch has been caused by the prolonged steel strike and it looks as though Florida will be short about 100 tons.

The cabinet last week authorized Dan D'Alemberte, purchasing agent, to buy 50 and one half tons of slightly damaged steel in Birmingham and to purchase 200,000 tag blanks from the state of Pennsylvania. That state recently switched to aluminum for its tags.

The cabinet also voted to purchase 300 tons of steel from Holland, but delivery can't be obtained until January. D'Alemberte said this steel would be used for 1961 tags.

Politics Aplenty At State Meeting

TALLAHASSEE — Politics, football and atom smashers featured the second annual legislative appreciation day on the campus of Florida State University last week.

There were candidates galore on hand with the men who may run for governor next year attracting the most attention. None of them would say they were a candidate, but most acted like potential office-seekers.

Sen. Doyle Carlton of Wauchula and former Rep. Farris Bryant of Ocala were on hand. Also present were Rep. Tom Beasley of Walton County, Sens. Dewey Johnson of Quincy and Harry Stratton of Callahan and former Rep. Ted David of Hollywood.

Missing from the festivities, however, were Sen. Fred Dickinson of West Palm Beach and Mayor Haydon Burns of Jacksonville, considered sure starters. Circuit Judge John McCarty of Fort Pierce, Miami attorney Earl Faircloth and Jacksonville attorney Fred Kent, all of whom may run, were also absent.

Most of the activity centered around a luncheon and cocktail party at the Tallahassee Country Club. However, politicizing continued through a tour of FSU and a look at the new $132,590 atom smasher as well as during the FSU-Miami football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Andrews had as guests over the weekend their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hingson, and son of Clewiston and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Andrews, and family of Lake Worth.

Lt. and Mrs. A. W. Schell, Jr., and daughter, were the weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Platt of Pahokee.

Roberts Is Member '59 Seal Campaign

Emmett S. Roberts, Belle Glade, and Rev. J. K. Bryant, West Palm Beach, have been named Chairman and Co-Chairman respectively of the 1959 Christmas Seal Campaign, according to Doyle Rogers, president, Palm Beach County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Mr. Roberts said, "I accept this chairmanship a second year because I am greatly concerned about the TB situation in Palm Beach County. It behooves each of us to support the 1959 Christmas Seal Campaign if we are to continue the progress made thus far in the fight against this catching disease."

Rev. Bryant said, "I am happy to serve again in this capacity, and appeal to all persons to support the Christmas Seal Campaign so the TB Association can continue its four point program of Education, Patient Service, Case Finding and Research. I hope every one will understand that the closing of one of the state's four TB hospitals does not necessarily mean TB is on the decline but only that improved treatment methods have shortened the average hospital stay so fewer beds can now take care of more patients."

Mr. Roberts added, "With the increased growth in population in Palm Beach County, the job of finding the undiscovered cases of TB becomes more serious each year. With over 600 Palm Beach County people under medical supervision for TB and 12,404 in the state, which is the largest number in the state's history, it is obvious TB remains a major public health problem in this area."

"We have set an ambitious goal of $60,000 for this Christmas Seal Campaign. That is the amount needed to adequately provide the type of program we feel is necessary to curtail TB in Palm Beach County," Mr. Roberts concluded.
